MEMORANDUM

TO: ALL CANDIDATES
FROM: MAXINE DANIELS, DIRECTOR
SUBJECT: CAMPAIGNING AT THE POLLS ON ELECTION DAY
DATE: MARCH 2014

The Official Code of Georgia, Annotated §21-2-414, specifies the distance from the polls beyond which persons may solicit votes, distribute campaign material, solicit petition signatures, or conduct exit polls or public opinion polls. The provisions of this law prohibit such conduct within 150 feet of the outer edge of any building within which a polling place is established. For your information, enclosed is a copy of §21-2-414.

Please remember, a candidate may not shake hands or greet voters at the polls (even at their own poll). This is considered a form of campaigning. Please be sure to remove buttons, badges and other campaign material before entering the polling place.

As you know, many of our polling places are located in private facilities, primarily churches. We have written agreements with these facilities, which contain stipulations concerning our use of the facility. Inappropriate behavior of campaign workers at these facilities could result in the loss of a polling place.

Many problems referred to the Voter Registration & Elections Office on Election Day involve campaign activities at the polls. This takes valuable time, which could be better spent in assisting voters and poll workers with their questions and difficulties. Your cooperation and the cooperation of your campaign workers in complying with the distance requirements will be greatly appreciated. If a campaign worker persists in violating the law after being told by the poll manager to stop, the worker will be asked to leave. If the violators refuse to leave, the poll manager will call the appropriate law enforcement authority and have the person removed.

The red signs reading, “NO CAMPAIGNING BY ANYONE (INCLUDING CANDIDATES) WITHIN 150 FEET OF THE POLLING PLACE” will be posted at the main entrance to the polling place. Nothing in the Election Code requires that these signs be posted 150 feet from the polling place. These signs are to serve as a warning to campaign workers about the distance requirements. Further, there is to be NO CAMPAIGNING, including signs on the property of any voting facility on Election Day or during Early/Advance Voting in person (GA ELECTIONS CODE §16-7-58). Please make certain your campaign workers are aware of the laws pertaining to campaigning.

Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated. If you need clarification or have any questions, please call.
