Statement from DeKalb County Regarding Inclement Weather Preparations

“To prepare for possible inclement weather, DeKalb County has partnered with the DeKalb County School District and various cities within the county to ensure we are ready for a worst-case scenario. The county is also participating in a Web Emergency Operation Center event by the state to monitor the situation. We are coordinating with all county departments and are asking citizens to get winter-storm ready by creating an emergency plan and assembling an emergency preparedness kit.”

– Chief Sue Loeffler, DeKalb County Emergency Management Agency Director
