NOTES TO SUPPLIER:

NOTE 1: Bidders that bid on Public Works work type shirts, jackets, or coveralls shall provide and sew patches on such garments. Public Safety – Police Services will provide patches and emblems for their items. Bidders shall provide pricing to supply these emblems and patches for Public Safety – Fire Rescue Services, in accordance to the minimum specifications. Any labor cost for embroidery, screen printing and sewing of patches shall be included in all applicable line item prices.

NOTE 2: Successful bidders shall provide and maintain punch-out capabilities and be responsible for maintaining the agreed upon pricing structure and catalog offerings on their website by cooperating as a trading partner with the County (Information Technology Department) and their designated punch-out host. The punch-out site shall be active within 30 calendar days of contract award.

PRICE SCHEDULE

NOTE 3: Successful bidders shall have a local representative and telephone number to call regarding any contract details. Bidder states name and telephone number below:

Name: _____ Number: _____

NOTE 4: Do not submit any samples with this bid. If bidding other than the brands listed above where acceptable equals are considered, samples may be required. You will be notified as to when and where you need to submit the samples. No Samples are to be submitted to the DeKalb County Purchasing and Contracting Department. After bids are received, the County may request testing of items. If testing on an item is required then the bidder must supply one (1) of each of the items requested at “No Charge” to the County for such testing purposes.

NOTE 5: Delivery time is of the essence and will differ for several departments and manufacturers. Please see page 8 for delivery requirements. Successful bidders shall maintain adequate inventory to supply all order requests within the established time frame and ensure that special orders and backorders are kept to a minimum.

NOTE 6: Several departments will order seasonal uniforms for existing staff at least twice a year (Summer and Winter). All orders shall be delivered as a complete uniform set. Each order shall be packaged separately, according to employee name and size. Items shall be marked with employee’s name on merchandise package and name and size listed on packing slip.

NOTE 7: Bidders shall provide references from other customers of the same size as DeKalb County or larger that have purchased the specified products within the last three (3) years. References are to include: company name, contact name and title, phone number and email (see pages 160-161).

NOTE 8: Bidder shall provide cost for initial screen printing design. Normal production time will be no more than 10-13 calendar days. Any and all art files will be in Microsoft Word format in pdf, jpeg or tif form.

NOTE 9: The award determination will be based on multiple factors such as price, product quality, timely service and ability to supply a complete uniform for each department (one stop shop).

NOTE 10: ABBREVIATIONS

MINIMUM SPECIFICATIONS

Successful bidders shall furnish all labor, equipment, supplies, transportation and all things necessary to supply the purchase of uniforms for DeKalb County, in accordance with the minimum specifications.

1.0 RETURNS

Unused and unaltered items that were ordered incorrectly shall be accepted by the bidder for full credit. Due to the adding and deleting of employees and the change in sizes of existing employees, successful bidders shall exchange clothing (which has not been worn) for another size within thirty (30) days of having being received by DeKalb County.

2.0 MEASUREMENTS

Bidder shall be solely responsible for the securing of all necessary measurements (waits, inseam, sleeve length and neck) at mutually convenient times to be arranged between the bidder and the user department. Women’s uniforms are to be a contoured fit for females; County will not accept male-cut clothing for female employees. Sleeve length shall be as standard for the industry. Shirts shall be available in both regular back length and long back length. For the purpose of this Invitation to Bid, the following measurements are considered standard:

3.0 EMBLEMS/PATCHES AND SCREEN PRINTING FOR PUBLIC SAFETY (APPLICABLE FOR PUBLIC SAFETY SECTION ONLY)

1. All embroidered emblems/patches shall be purchased by DeKalb County separately from the garments and furnished to the successful bidder as needed. The bidder is to price each garment with only the labor to sew on the emblems/patches as specified.
2. All emblems shall be 100% embroidered by using polyester thread to match “Robison Anton Embroidery Thread Manufacturing” except name strips and Maltese cross strip backgrounds which shall be matching self-material. The backs of all emblems shall be sealed in plastic coating. The substrate backing for all stitched bordered embroidery shall be furnished in black. All embroidered letters shall be in the same block style according to the layouts. Stitching shall be tight to produce clean, sharp lines and lettering.
3. The quality of stitches shall be sufficient so that different color background do not show through. Directional stitching shall be used to differentiate backgrounds and details. Registry shall be exact and crisp.
4. Robison Anton Manufacturing Embroidery Thread Colors

Yellow	5513
Slate Blue	2275
Light Navy	5603
Red	5678
Snow White	5597
Metallic Gold	No Number

5. The screen printing of the Public Works logo and division are required on t-shirts, sweatshirts, sweatpants and/or jackets. Screen printing is a technique that uses a silk screen mesh to support an ink-blocking stencil. DeKalb County requires a 2 to 4 colors screen print process.

6. REFERENCE INFORMATION FOR EMBROIDERY OF EMBLEMS/PATCHES

Items #9 through #28 (Nomex navy and light blue shirts) shall include installation of 6 patches: both sleeves, left and right chest and both collars.

Items #29 through #34 (White dress shirts) shall include installation of 2 patches: both sleeves.
