

NOTICE OF 2017 POLLING PLACE CHANGES

The following changes will be effective for the November 7th Municipal/Special Elections and all subsequent elections.

- The polling place for the Whitefoord Elementary Precinct has been relocated to Coan Recreation Center, located at 1530 Woodbine Avenue, SE, Atlanta 30317 and renamed Coan Recreation Precinct. This change was implemented because the Atlanta Public Schools notified the R&E Board that Whitefoord Elementary was no longer available.
- The polling place for the Wadsworth Precinct has been relocated from Rockbridge Elementary School to Columbia Drive United Methodist Church, located at 2067 Columbia Drive, Decatur 30032. This change was implemented because the DeKalb Board of Education notified the R&E Board that Rockbridge Elementary was no longer available.
- The polling place for the Dunwoody High Precinct has been relocated from Dunwoody High School to Kingswood United Methodist Church, located at 5015 Tilly Mill Road, Dunwoody, 30338 and renamed Dunwoody 2 Precinct. This change was implemented because the DeKalb Board of Education notified the R&E Board that Dunwoody High was no longer available.
- The polling place for the Henderson Mill Precinct has been relocated from Henderson Mill Elementary School to St. Bede's Episcopal Church, located at 2601 Henderson Mill Road, Atlanta 30345. This change was implemented because the DeKalb Board of Education notified the R&E Board that Henderson Mill Elementary was no longer available.
- The polling place for the Winnona Park Elementary Precinct has been relocated from Winnona Park Elementary School to Columbia Theological Seminary, Richard Center, located at 701 S. Columbia Drive, Decatur 30030 and renamed Winnona Park Precinct. This change was implemented because the Decatur Board of Education notified the R&E Board that Winnona Park Elementary was no longer available.
