Delay Processing - Failure to fully complete and submit all required documentation will delay your renewal application's processing. Any incomplete application(s) and/or forms will be mailed or email back to the business operator for completion.

REMINDER:

Please note - Business occupation tax certificates shall not be transferable. Transfer of ownership of the business shall be considered as the termination of the business and the establishment of a new business. Filing a new registration application and payment of applicable fees and taxes shall be required of the new owner of the business. Failure to file a new registration application and to pay any applicable fees shall be grounds for revocation. Any attempt to transfer a business occupation tax certificate itself shall be punished as provided in section 1-10 of this Code.
