DeKalb Voter Registration and Elections Announces Runoff Details for Georgia Public Service Commission Race

Early Voting July 7 -11; Runoff Election Day July 15

[Decatur, Ga.] – DeKalb Voter Registration and Elections (DeKalb VRE) announces early voting details for the July runoff between Democratic candidates Peter Hubbard and Keisha Sean Waites, who are seeking their party’s nomination for District 3 of the Georgia Public Service Commission (PSC). Early voting will take place Monday, July 7, through Friday, July 11, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at three DeKalb County locations. Election Day for the runoff is Tuesday, July 15.

Early voting sites include:

- DeKalb VRE Office, 4380 Memorial Drive in Decatur
- Dunwoody Library, 5339 Chamblee Dunwoody Road in Dunwoody
- Salem-Panola Library, 5137 Salem Road in Lithonia

Denotes drop box locations*

Voters casting absentee ballots must request one by July 7. During the Special Primary Runoff Election, all Democratic voters will see the PSC District 3 race on their ballots. The winner will advance to the general election in November.

Any voter who did not cast a ballot in the Special Primary Election may still vote in the Primary Runoff Election. A voter who cast a Republican ballot in the June 17 Primary is not eligible to vote in the Runoff.

“With no candidate receiving over 50 percent of the vote during our previous election cycle, we will host a runoff election to determine the party’s nomination for District 3,” said DeKalb VRE Executive Director Keisha Smith. “With these dates quickly approaching, we are urging voters to make a plan to cast their ballots during this runoff election.”
