[Decatur, GA] DeKalb County Voter Registration & Elections (DeKalb VRE) is preparing to administer the upcoming Georgia House District 94 Special Election. The special election provides eligible voters in House District 94 the opportunity to cast their ballot for state legislative representation.

Election Day for the special election is Tuesday, March 10, with polls open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. DeKalb VRE encourages voters to review important election dates, confirm their registration status, and make a plan to vote—whether by absentee ballot, early voting, or on Election Day.

Early voting begins on Feb. 16 and continues through March 6. Voting will be available Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Early voting will also be offered on Saturday, Feb. 21, and Saturday, Feb. 28, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday voting will be available on February 22 and March 1 from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Logic and Accuracy testing is scheduled for Feb. 9 at 9 a.m. at the DeKalb VRE office, located at 4380 Memorial Dr., Suite 300, Decatur, GA 30032.

“Special elections operate on a condensed timeline, which makes planning ahead especially important,” said Keisha L. Smith, Executive Director of DeKalb VRE. “We encourage voters to request absentee ballots as soon as possible or take advantage of early voting opportunities to ensure their participation in this election.”

DeKalb VRE strongly encourages voters who plan to vote by mail to request their absentee ballots now until Feb. 27. Absentee ballot applications may be submitted online, by mail, by fax, or in person, in accordance with Georgia law. Voters are reminded that ballots must be received by the appropriate deadline to be counted. Detailed absentee voting information, including application instructions and deadlines, is available at www.dekalbvotes.com.
