RE: Challenges under O.C.G.A. 21-2-230
Deceased Electors

Dear Executive Director Smith:

Enclosed are 173 DeKalb County electors who I believe are deceased, based on the evidence presented; and I am requesting a hearing.

Although Georgia's 230 Section only requires a finding of probable cause to believe the elector does not have the right to vote in an election, and sustaining a challenge does not automatically result in removal from the list of electors, Attorney Ernestes has invoked the Department of Justice's Guidance on the NVRA 90 day "quiet period" for removals for all non-personal-knowledge challenges before a Federal election.

According to that same Guidance on Voter Registration List Maintenance published by the Department of Justice September 2024, page 4, the 90 day restriction on removals from the voter list does not apply to deceased. It says:

However, the 90-day deadline does not preclude removal of a registrant's name at the request of that registrant, removal due to the death of the registrant, or . . .

Then O.C.G.A. 21-2-231(e.1) says:

County registrars may obtain information about persons who died from obituaries published by local newspapers, death certificates, verifiable knowledge of the death, and information provided in writing and signed by a family member or members of the deceased person. . .

Because the evidence I am submitting often has the elector's name, address and full date of birth, to facilitate posting of the challenges I have not attached evidence to the individual challenge forms. Instead, you will find separate stacks for the challenge forms and evidence pages, all in the same order. I will be happy to furnish a spreadsheet to facilitate your office's processing upon request, but the spreadsheet is not a part of these challenges.

Please note these individual challenges are being submitted prior to the 45 day "quiet period" for 230 challenges and advise when a hearing will be scheduled.

Respectfully yours,

G. A. Lee
Resident of DeKalb County

Virginia Smith Obituary

For Virginia Twinam Smith, it was never too late to pursue her dreams. Although she married at 19 and soon was busy with children, the avid reader taught herself cultural history to enhance her volunteer work as a museum docent and an expert on plant lore. In her 60s, she went to photography school. In her 70s, she completed a highly regarded photo project on Little Five Points. By her 80s, Smith had adapted to new technology and become an award-winning photographer known for her digitally enhanced botanical composites. 'I always admired Virginia because she was a determined person. She was a dynamo. She was not going to quit,' said friend Junie Brown of Peachtree Corners. 'She saw no reason that a woman in her 70s could not have an impact. She was a pioneer and an example for a lot of young female photographers.' Smith died May 6 of heart failure at the age of 91. SHEPHERD

1927 - 2015

SHEPHERD, Anne Dale Anne Dale Shepherd, 88, of Chamblee passed away peacefully at home on March 17, 2015. A Buckhead native, was born on January 26, 1927 to Russel and Kathleen Dale, and graduated from North Fulton High School in 1944. At University of Georgia she majored in English and met fellow student Charles G. Shepherd Jr, whom she married a week after graduating in 1948. Anne exemplified a life well lived. To the end, her days were abundant with family, friends and experiences. She was a world traveler - from Japan to Egypt to the Florida Keys and many elderhostels in between - who captured her favorite places in her paintings. Her unflappable poise and grace enwrapped an artistic spirit and a sharp intellect. Anne authored five books, taught piano lessons for 34 years, and was active as a church musician and choir member for over 50 years. She shared her love of gardening, as well as her own lush plants - Lenten roses, camellias and Christmas cacti - with those around her. Steadfastly kind and attentive to others, she volunteered throughout her life, early on as a pink lady at the former Shallowford Hospital and in her later years every week at the Suthers Center. She

SCHLAGHECK, Richard Richard C. "Dick" Schlagheck, 78, of Atlanta, passed away 2-24-15. Dick, born 11-9-36 in Toledo, Ohio, was a proud and long-term employee of Columbia Gas. From welder to district management positions, his career took him to Columbus, Ohio; Huron, Ohio; and Norfolk, Virginia. Following a period of retirement in Florida, Dick relocated to Atlanta for his final years, where a courageous long-term battle with cancer, which started with breast cancer, was finally lost. A giving person and a loving soul, Dick remained as positive as he always was, even in his final days, showing two thumbs up whenever he was asked how he was feeling. Dick is survived by his wife, the love of his life for more than 55 years, Jane G. (Stith) Schlagheck. In addition, he leaves behind oldest son, Michael and wife, Cheryl, of Atlanta. Michael and his wife were dedicated to Dick's care, and continue to provide for Jane. Sonia PICALLO Obituary

Published by TBO.com on Dec. 28, 2014.

PICALLO, Sonia Edilla, born June 15, 1939, died last Friday, December 19, 2014. Sonia earned a Master's in Education and spent her first career as an Early childhood educator who pioneered several successful programs in Hillsborough County that allowed countless families the opportunity to give their children a critical head start on their education. After retirement, Sonia embarked on a second career as a court inter-preter. Sonia successfully passed all parts of the Federal Court Interpreters Certification Exam administered by the US Federal Court System. The pass rate of the exam is less than 10%. Sonia relished the complexities of learning the detailed vocabulary that was required and the intensity of simultaneous interpretation. Ever ready for new challenges, Sonia recently completed a two-year Energetic Healing program and had just begun to take on new clients. Sonia's curiosity of the world also took her to around the globe. France, Spain, Cuba, England and Machu Picchu (twice) but she loved the Florida Gulf more than anything. Her best days were the Summer ones on the beach spent with her family. Sonia felt blessed by her family and often spoke about how her family was always there for her, and always ready to have fun. Sonia is survived by her son, Albert, her daughter-in-law, Kellie and grandchildren, Isabella and Harrison. She will be deeply missed. A Funeral Mass will be held on Sat., Jan. 3, at 10:30AM at Saint Lawrence Catholic Church, 5225 North Himes Ave., Tampa, FL.

Robertson and Julia G. Robertson. Frank graduated with a degree in Electrical Engineering from Georgia Tech and also earned an MBA from Georgia State University. After graduating from Georgia Tech, Frank served two years in the US Army before becoming employed as a consulting electrical engineer. After retirement, Frank looked forward to taking trips to the beach with his cousin, David Robertson of Markham, Ontario, Canada and spending time with his dear friends
