Water Outage Planned During Overnight Pipe Replacement

Aging water pipe repair scheduled for July 14 in Tucker

DECATUR, Ga. – On July 14, contractors working on behalf of DeKalb County Department of Watershed Management will temporarily interrupt water service to properly replace a damaged water line. The work will take place overnight from 10 p.m. to 3 a.m. to lessen the impact to residents, businesses, and commuters at the intersection of Lawrenceville Highway and Northlake Parkway. This section of Northlake Parkway will reopen on Thursday, July 15.

The DeKalb County Department of Watershed Management has initiated this construction project to address the repair needs as a part of ongoing maintenance to improve water service countywide.
